Justice Silences Inquiry Witness

OTTAWA (CP)—Chief Justice The judge retorted that he would decide what is hearsay evidence or not.

"If I couldn't, I wouldn't be trying to make a farce of his inquiry," he shouted angrily at Mr. Miranda.

Mr. Miranda said Mr. Lamontagne could also be questioned on the alleged conversation with Chief Justice Doherty.

"We are not going to conduct any inquiry on conversations," Chief Justice Doherty said.

Do you think I want to hear comments from everyone on the conduct of the RCMP? the judge asked.

He said each procedure was illegal and snapped at Mr. Blais that's all.

Much astounded, Mr. Blais and Mr. Miranda retreated hurriedly from the courtroom.

Earlier a shouting match between two lawyers brought a stern warning from the judge and a temporary adjournment of the hearing.

Earlier today, RCMP Commissioner George B. McCallan testified he would have been surprised if Prime Minister Pearson had advised Liberal MP Guy Rouleau that he was going to be questioned by the RCMP in the Rivard affair.

Anti-U.S. Demonstrations Break Out Again In Moscow

MOSCOW (AP)—Anti-American demonstrators attacked the U.S. Embassy with rocks and ink bottles today and drove back police with sticks and slingshots before being dispersed by Soviet soldiers.

More than 2,000 students from Moscow and Leningrad Universities were allowed by police to smash windows and smear the embassy walls with red and blue ink for about 10 minutes.

But when mounted police began to push the mob back it turned in fury.

Extraordinary police precautions, taken after U.S. Ambassador Foy D. Kohler demanded protection for the embassy on hearing a demonstration was brewing, failed to halt the shouting students.

Several policemen were beaten by groups of demonstrators armed with sticks and other weapons. At least eight Chinese and Communist North Vietnamese, were taken into custody.

Windows were smashed in the 10-storey embassy as high as against the expected mob.

Britin Proposes New Bill To Stiffen Monopoly Control

LONDON (AP)—The British government published a bill Wednesday to stiffen control of monopolies. A special clause would outlaw mergers of big newspapers without government consent.

Anti-trust actions in Britain are generally a matter of public policy rather than law. Cases are decided on the basis of whether a monopoly or merger is deemed to be in the public interest. The decision is made by a government-appointed monopolies commission which can break up monopolies or prohibit mergers.

The bill, which must be passed by Parliament, will enable the government to expand the commission to 25 members from 10, in order to work in sections for speedier handling of cases.

The newspaper clause follows the collapse of two Sunday and three daily papers in London during recent years and a number of takeovers of provincial papers by large chains. A royal commission was appointed to examine this matter.

Under the new bill, an owner whose papers have a total

SUNNYVALE SCHOOL BUS FUND GIVEN BOOST BY LIONS

A donation of $500 was made to the Sunnyvale School Bus Fund by the Kelowna Lions Club, Wednesday, for the school bus fund. The donation was made at the annual meeting of Kelowna and District Retarded Children Society. A T. (Bibi) Kobayashi, left, accepted the cheque on behalf of the foresters. S. F. Thompson representing the Lions club presented the cheque. The foresters are "spearheading" a drive for funds. This is an indication of the fine spirit of cooperation existing in the area. Mr. Kobayashi said, "Our objective is $5,000 and when the funds are all raised, the board for the retarded children society will choose a bus." he said. (Courier photo)

Bonner Says RCMP Code High Suicide Rate Factor

VICTORIA (CP)—A high suicide rate is "always an indicator" to police forces like the RCMP which have strict moral codes, Attorney-General Robert Bonner said Wednesday.

He compared the RCMP code of discipline with those of the Japanese kamikaze pilots and the German officers' corps in the Second World War.

RCMP standards, he told the B.C. legislature, are among the highest of any police force in the world.

Mr. Bonner said forces and cadres like the RCMP look heavily on development of a strong sense of personal honor which created a psychological condition conducive to an officer taking his own life in times of adversity.

"This I think is an unavoidable facet of this type of attainment," he said.

Offers Said Forthcoming For "Contaminated" Animals

VANCOUVER (CP)—Officials are making offers today for the purchase of cattle and hogs in the Grand Forks area, says Agriculture Minister Frank Richter.

Representatives of the provincial and federal governments will approach farmers and report later on their reaction to the proposals.

Mr. Richter said the offers will be "very close" to his earlier suggestion for the purchase of 320 head of beef cattle, cows and hogs on three farms at Grand Forks closed by food and drug officials because of dangerous levels of pesticide.

The provincial government has dropped the pesticide Dieldrin, a chlorinated hydrocarbon chemical, from its springtime recommendation list. It is used widely in control of locusts and other insects in the area and as a feed have been blamed for a high level of pesticides in the cattle and swine on the farms.

Mr. Richter said Wednesday night Dieldrin has been left off the list "because it is a strong chemical and it could be over-used more easily than some of the other chemicals."

Icy Rescue Attempts Fail To Save Drowning Minister

TERRACE (CP)—Louis McKay dove time after time into the icy Nass River in unsuccessful attempts to rescue a 74-year-old Indian minister.

Terrace police said today Mr. McKay spent up to 20 minutes fully clothed in the river trying to save Rev. Paul Mercer from drowning Tuesday.

Finally, helped by a man with a pole-pole, he dragged the minister through a hole made when the minister's horse-drawn sleigh plunged through the ice.

Police said McKay "must have had guts galore."

Swedes Coast To Easy Win Dump U.S. 5-2 In World Hockey

TAMPERE, Finland (CP)—Sweden scored four goals in the first two periods and coasted to a 5-2 victory over the United States today in their opening game of the world hockey championships.

The highly rated Swedish team, runner-up to Russia in the 1963 world tournament and the Winter Olympics last year, took a 1-0 lead in the 14th minute of the first period when forward Roland Stoliz flipped a neat pass from Ronald Peterson past American goalie Tom Hough.

The Americans tied the score less than half a minute later on an unassisted goal by Tom Ron. But Sweden went ahead in the last minute of the period when Lari Lundstrom scored on Elert Mantta's pass.

Gert Blome made it 3-1 early in the middle session and Peterson scored the fourth Swedish goal late in the period.

Sweden's Nils Nilsson, on a play with Peterson, wound up the scoring—14 seconds before the game ended, and after Paul Coppo notched the second U.S. goal.

Russia beat Finland 8-1. Earlier Czechoslovakia dumped East Germany 5-1.

Rivard Believed Still In Montreal Despite Letter

JUDGE FINDS MLA IMMUNE

VANCOUVER (CP)—The immunity to arrest of members of the legislature Wednesday saved Don Robinson (SCL-Lib) from being cited for contempt of court.

Robinson had been ordered to appear in court here to explain why he failed to pay a $7,000 judgment that Fred Sharp of Vancouver, a former Social Credit MLA, obtained against Robinson almost two years ago.

When the case came up Wednesday, Robinson was not at court.

Judge R. A. Sargent prepared to make out the usual arrest warrant for Robinson to appear in court for possible contempt of court action that could result in a jail sentence.

But the judge checked his law books and found that members of the legislature are immune to this type of court action while the house is in session.

Not Too Much Credence Placed In Word Of Escapee

MONTREAL (CP)—A giant police manhunt for Lucien Rivard continued to concentrate on Montreal and its underworld today despite the escaped man's written hope that he'd be "far away" from the city by now.

"We still suspect he is somewhere in this area," said Quebec Provincial Police Inspector Jean Page. "That's the basis of our investigation."

Inspector Page made the statement shortly after Attorney-General Claude Wagner disclosed in Quebec City that Rivard had written a letter to Bordeaux Jail Governor Albert Tangway saying there was no inside complicity in Tuesday night's break from the prison in north-west Montreal.

"If I'm lucky, I'll be far away by the time you receive this letter," Rivard told Mr. Tangway.

Inspector Page indicated police put little faith in this part of the letter, which bore a Montreal postmark and was dated 10 p.m. Wednesday night.

"It is not unusual for someone in Rivard's position to say something like that and then remain in the city," the QPP officer said. "If he did leave, where is he going to go?"

Egypt Arrests Terrorist Group

CAIRO (AP)—The Egyptian government has arrested a "network of German terrorists," the semi-official newspaper Al-Ahram reports.

Tips Flood Investigators Nothing Definite Turned Up

"So far they haven't turned up anything definite," said Rivard's letter to Tangway added yet another bizarre twist to an escape that already includes a wooden pistol, a rubbery plan to water a hockey rink in 40-degree weather, and the emptying of Rivard's jail "canteen fund" of $2,000 hours before the escape.

In the letter, Rivard apologized for any trouble the break may have caused, saying he

The attorney-general, who Wednesday unfolded the baffling details of how Rivard and Ducher, executed Bordeaux' first successful break in 29 years, said earlier he was sure the escapees still were in the Montreal area.

Wife-Slayer Freed To Raise Family

DETROIT (AP)—A judge bestowed freedom Wednesday on locomotive engineer John M. Frazier in the fatal slaying of his wife, her alleged lover and a second man.

Judge Vincent J. Brennan declared Frazier should be allowed freedom in order to raise his family of four children, limited the sentence to five years probation.

Frazier, 41, permitted to plead guilty to manslaughter, had faced possible life imprisonment on an earlier first-degree murder charge.

Police said Frazier shot and killed his wife, Dorothy, 40, when he found her in the embrace of Clarence Z. DePote, 47, on a couch at a radio announcers' school last Sept. 14.

Then, police said, Frazier also shot to death DePote and Pierre Paulin, 51, former Detroit radio announcer who operated the school.

No Mass Funeral For Blast Victims

MONTREAL (CP)—Plans for a mass funeral for the 27 known victims of the LaSalle apartment explosion were dropped today, leaving each family to make its own burial arrangements.

Police in the west-end suburb had reported Wednesday that a mass service would be organized.

A spokesman at the main relief centre said today, however, that these plans have been changed.

"Plans for a mass funeral were discussed, but they were not approved," he said. "We are going to leave it up to each family to make their own arrangements."

Meanwhile, police disclosed they now have identified 26 of the 27 bodies recovered after Monday's breakfast-time blast reduced the three-storey apartment block to a mass of rubble.

OPPOSITION WADE INTO RIVARD ESCAPE STORY

Favreau "Sits Harassed" in House

OTTAWA (CP)—A harassed Justice Minister Favreau sat in the Commons for 3 1/2 hours Wednesday while Opposition parties waded with delight into a special debate on the jail break of Lucien Rivard.

Over government objections that the escape of the narcotics suspect was a provincial matter, the New Democratic, Social Credit and Creditist parties supported a motion for the debate moved by Opposition Leader Diefenbaker.

Speaker MacNaughton ruled the motion in order after an hour of heated procedural debate.

The Conservative chief allows a duty to the people of Canada to tell them what it did to assure that this man would not be able to escape.

It was obvious, said Mr. Diefenbaker, that the words "Rivard" do not mean a prison made of iron bars a cage" apply to Rivard.

"Never before has a Canadian government shown so much solicitude for an ordinary man, not an ordinary one, an extraordinary one; an international one."

Mr. Favreau said Mr. Diefenbaker's charge was unfounded and "were made for political purposes."

He accused Mr. Diefenbaker of spreading rumors and insinuations and added that the Tory chief hadn't indicated once in what way the government was remiss in its responsibility for Rivard's escape.

"Never can there exist any federal responsibility whatsoever; legally or in fact," he said to applause from government benches.

Social Credit Leader Thompson termed Rivard's escape "a very tragic state of affairs. It compared with the jail-jumping of Hal Banks, former president of the Seneca's International Union of Canada."

"Something must be wrong when these things can happen," said Mr. Thompson.

One of the main projects during 1964 was working with School District No. 23 school board, an appeal for a new school for the retarded children. R. P. McLennan, president of the Kelowna and district society for retarded children, said Wednesday.

The annual meeting was held in Sunnyside training centre, Bertrand St., with more than 25 people attending.

Since the establishment of Sunnyside school in December 1963, the society has been very co-operative and has developed the school to the high standard it is.

The school-aged retarded children will move over to the new school next week and the official opening is being planned for the last week in April.

B.L.B.

A problem facing the board is that the present school bus will be condemned in the next year of two.

The bus was loaned to the retarded children's society by the school board but the society will be required to arrange for a bus when the present bus is condemned.

The Independent Order of Foresters have undertaken a fund raising campaign in the community and have set a goal. Without a bus the school would have to close as the majority of the students are dependent on bus transportation. Mr. McLennan said.

Mr. P. M. Trevisch, work supervisor, said there is growing interest by the reintegration committee directed by Dr. D. A. Clarke, in the work accomplished by the trainees.

The amount of work received from industry has shown an increase over the previous 12 months and will prove helpful in future from present industries.

Students have been giving work to test the skills and movements of the trainees. The first customers are still bringing work in at an increased rate.

ACTIVITIES

"Special activities during the year include recreation such as skating, physical education and swimming plus circuses, parties and a dinner for the students.

"The hand-trains is fully equipped between commercial commitments," Mrs. Trevisch said.

J. K. Campbell, treasurer, said the board will be up against a duplication of operating costs with the new school being opened.

EXPENSE

The operating surplus for 1964 was $2,649. Disbursements totalled $11,404 and total revenue was $13,569 compared to $12,223 a year ago. In the operating expense account for 1965 there is $6,149 which will be used for payment of salaries, wages, utilities in the building, general repairs to the building and equipment and miscellaneous expenses.

"During 1965, the old school should be able to operate on the per capita grants for school age children," Mr. Campbell said.

Mrs. Nolen Peters, head teacher, said the curriculum is comprised of academic and special skills, music and recreation, social awareness and development, speech and sense training.

"The emphasis on any one course varies for the child's individual need.

"The present enrolment is 17 pupils in school and two in the pre-school division. The boys and girls in Division I and II were divided into two groups and has been very successful. The girls are in Mrs. Peters room, Division I and the boys under Carl Tuovila, Division II.

"Mrs. N. W. Wentzell instructs the pre-school students," Mrs. Peters said.

"Reports were sent home semi-annually to parents and a parent-teacher interview was held in April," she said.

EDUCATION

Mrs. T. F. McWilliams, education committee chairman said there have been some changes in the staff at the school during the year.

"Mr. Harold Lamoureux resigned as head teacher in June and Mrs. Peters took her place. Mr. Tuovila also joined the staff during the year," she said.

Mrs. Edith Dumbleton, representing the PTA said there has been better attendance at meetings last year than in 1933-34.

"Bake sales, tents and bazaars, raffles, and social gatherings have been catered by members of the association.

DINNER

"The get-acquainted dinner in early December was a success and it may become an annual event.

"Some of the members are sending material donated by themselves, very good stores in preparation for the spring bazaar planned for May 5," Mrs. Dumbleton said.

Mrs. Royce Barrett gave the report of the house committee for E. W. Barrett, chairman.

"The janitor resigned early in the year and was replaced by a woman.

"It is difficult to keep the activity room heated during the winter months and some form of auxiliary heat is required before next winter.

"The older boys assisted by painting some of the furniture in the spare time," she said in Mr. Barrett's report.

A motion was passed at the regular monthly meeting of the Okanagan Similkameen Tourist association in Kelowna Wednesday, that would control the expenses of Valley floats when sent to parades in other areas.

Mayor R. H. Parkinson proposed the motion which recommended the same procedure be followed, as in the past two years for choosing the floats.

The float committee decided which of the three cities, Kelowna, Vernon or Penticton has the best float, and the one most easily transported out of the area," he said. "Then that city is asked to send their float to a designated parade.

He also proposed the Valley float be sent to Wenatchee for the Apple Blossom festival May 4, and to the Lilac Festival in Spokane May 13 - 15.

"After that, let the OSTA meeting decide where else it may be sent," he said.

The resolution read "I recommend we carry on with the same policy used in choosing Valley float as in the past two years, considering the cost taking it to parades and the quality of the float, with the committee deciding.

"The expenditure involved in taking the float to a parade should first be approved by the float committee and the advertising committee. I also recommend the first two trips be to Wenatchee and Spokane and then the committee return to meeting to decide where else should go."

PRAYER SERVICE

The World Day of Prayer March 5, will be observed in Kelowna with an interdenominational service in the First United Church, 721 Bernard Ave., at 2 p.m.

OSTA Sets '65 Campaign

The Okanagan-Similkameen Tourist association agreed at a meeting last week Wednesday to slash $3,000 from its advertising budget from the prairies to the Vancouver market.

A total advertising budget of $8,686 was passed. The budget was proposed by Mayor M. P. Finnelly of Penticton, chairman of the advertising committee.

"We will spend this amount, roughly divided between the Prairies and the Vancouver markets," he said. In 1963 and 1964 a total of $8,700 was spent advertising the Okanagan and Similkameen areas, on the Prairies.

PROPOSED

"The committee first proposed to divert this $3,000 to the Spokane area, but following U.S. president Lyndon Johnson's announcement he would restrict the amount of goods U.S. citizens might bring into this country was changed to $1,000. This announcement, we felt, will have an adverse effect on visitors."

"We decided the money would be better spent in Vancouver this year and we will consent Spokane another year," he said.

Homier Robinson of Kelowna suggested some of this money be spent on advertising in newspapers in Medicine Hat, Alton and Moose Jaw, Sask.

Mayor Finnelly said he would bring this suggestion to committee for a decision.

H. S. Harrison-Smith, president, said an effort would be made to raise extra funds from small centres with a view to reaching the Spokane market.

Frank Morton, district horticulturist, said today the pesticide Dieldrin has not been used in this area for the past five or six years.

The provincial agriculture department said Wednesday they are dropping this chemical from their springtime recommended list.

Dieldrin is a chlorinated hydrocarbon chemical widely used in the control of soil pests in the Grand Forks, B.C., area, the release said. Potatoes grown in the area and used as feed have been blamed for a high level of pesticides in cattle and swine on three Grand Forks farms.

"We once used it for pear psylla," Mr. Morton said, "but we looked on it as a stop gap until something better came along. With the advent of Guthion some five or six years ago we dropped Dieldrin."

"There was nothing wrong with Dieldrin, the bugs were just getting immune to it," he said.

L. R. Stephens, secretary manager of the Kamloops Federal Farmers' Association, said that his members have to eat a ton a day of such potatoes before any effect of the pesticide would be felt.

"Most chemicals are harmful, if misused," he said. "We believe the Grand Forks farmers must be feeding their cattle almost entirely on potatoes. Usually vegetables are only 20 to 25 per cent of their diet."

Kelowna is not a potato growing area. Our potatoes come from around the Coldstream and Salmon Arm areas. The recommended use of Dieldrin used to be 165 pounds to the acre, but most farmers used 100 pounds, because it's expensive.

"There is always the danger of overuse. It is also used as a weedicide. With farm chemicals, overuse is possible for anyone to occur."

"I think the government is wise in dropping it, it is perhaps more easily overused than some of the other chemicals," Mr. Stephens said.

Stuart Fleming, MP for Okanagan-Neleke, will be guest speaker at the annual interior region Boy Scout meeting in Kelowna, March 6. W. H. Cleaver, Central Okanagan district president said today.

"The annual meeting will be held in Kelowna Aquatic," he said. "Reginald Miller, Vancouver, provincial Boy Scout president is also expected to attend."

"Kelowna will host the annual meeting for the second time since its founding in 1961. The founding meeting was held in Kelowna," Mr. Cleaver said.

"Since then, it has been held in Penticton, Kamloops and Vernon, the present regional headquarters."

"The interior region extends from Bralorne to Blue River; and Golden to Osoyoos, consisting of all the territory in the area."

"There are five districts in the region, the Central Okanagan, North Okanagan, Kamloops, Penticton and Okanagan-Kobau, plus several unorganized areas."

"The meeting will begin at 2 p.m. Officers will be elected at the meeting."

"The banquet begins at 6 p.m.

at which time Mr. Fleming and Mr. Miller will speak. Scouts and Cubs from Kelowna will entertain around a camp fire following the banquet.

"We expect to have 150 people representing all districts in interior region," said Mr. Cleaver.

The Kelowna Canadian National Railways Veterans' Association will hold their first meeting in their newly renovated building at 1188 St. Paul St., F. C. Hales, secretary, said today.

"Previously the monthly meetings have been held in the First United Church hall and now the building, across from the CNR tracks is ready for use.

"This will be the opening meeting and will be held Tuesday, March 9, at 2 p.m. Members of the association will be able to use the building for a social meeting place in the future."

PLANS

"The association in Kelowna initially made renovation plans in March, 1964. However, work didn't begin until late in the year when the CNR bridge and building crew took the partitions out of the building," Mr. Hales said.

"The building previously had five rooms which were made into one large room. Gas heaters were set up at each end of the building. The walls and ceilings were cleaned by members of the Veterans' association during November.

"The B and B gang painted the interior of the building in the middle of February. New linoleum was put on the floor and new plumbing facilities were installed.

"The plumbing was joined to the city sewer system," said Mr. Hales.

SIDEWALK

"It is anticipated that a sidewalk will be put in before long running from St. Paul Street to the front door of the building.

"One hundred stacking chairs were supplied from the CNR MacDonald Hotel, Estevan. They told the association that the gallery and kitchen utensils were also available. All arrangements have been made through G. L. Graham, vice-president of the CNR, Edmonton.

"The building will be used for meetings. Members are asked to provide their own cup, saucer and teaspoon for this occasion only.

"People can park their vehicles on the CNR property but they are reminded there is a room for them on St. Paul St. north of Clement Ave.," Mr. Hales said.

Final editing and scripting of the Capilano Motion picture film of the Okanagan and Similkameen tourist attractions is now underway.

R. K. Gordon, secretary, told the monthly meeting of the OSTA Wednesday he had received a letter to this effect Feb. 10.

The film commissioned by the OSTA has a cost of $5,000 and will be used to advertise the area.

"The money was raised by extra grants of $1,000 each from Vernon, Kelowna and Penticton," Mayor M. P. Finnerty said. "The OSTA donated $1,000 and a matching grant from the provincial government paid the other $4,000. It is a 16 mm. color film."

Included in the film is the Kowloon Regatta, sailing at Big White and the Vernon and Penticton parades.

A resolution was passed at the meeting that Vernon, Kelowna and Penticton be asked for $3,000 in 1965 as their contribution to the OSTA. The motion was proposed by Mayor R. Parkinson and is the same amount as paid in 1964.

Mayor M. P. Finnerty of Penticton, said the 1965 annual brochures put out by the OSTA will soon be off the press.

Mayor Finnerty, R. K. Gordon and H. S. Harrison Smith, were appointed to investigate the possibility of placing an exhibit "Expo '67" in Montreal.

H. S. Harrison Smith, president of the OSTA, said he will investigate the possibility of obtaining a governing government grant for the dues paid by the Okanagan Curfew Trail Association. This association promotes the advertising of the Pan Am West route, and as such, should qualify for a matching grant. Mr. Smith said. The cost of $1,200 divided among the three cities, Kelowna, Vernon and Penticton.

Car Deans Sponsor Fund Raising Dance

Kelowna Car Deans, a youth organization that "promotes safe driving," are sponsoring dance Friday, Mar. 5, for purpose of raising funds for Sunnyside school bus.

Keith Davis, a member of publicity committee, said that the club has been working towards a goal of $2,000, they hope to have raised by spring of 1968.

"We have had dances before and to date, more than $2000 has been raised."

"The dance Friday begins 9 p.m. and will be held in own Aquatic with the "Co men" from Kelowna supply the music," he said.

Some Explanation Needed In The Jones Affair

"The Jones Affair" now being discussed in the Legislature is becoming more and more confused. George E. Jones was head of the purchasing department of the provincial government, was suspended for supposedly accepting gifts, was charged and acquitted. One area the dispute centred around was whether or not the cabinet could discharge Mr. Jones or whether the Legislature could do it. The latter was decided to be the case and the government brought in legislation to dispense with his services and pay him $15,000-odd in lieu of back salary.

These bare bones of the case are not puzzling in themselves, but there are overtones which certainly are. One is the attitude of the government throughout this whole affair. For instance, as this is written, the opposition have vigorously attacked the "fire-Jones bill," yet neither the government nor any of its followers has said one word of reason or explanation.

If the Legislature is the only body which can terminate Mr. Jones's services, surely before they are asked to take action the members of the Legislature should be given the reasons behind the move of the government? Yet no such reasons have been given.

Presumably the government has good and sufficient reasons but its failure to disclose those reasons can only create the suspicion that no good reason exists. Mr. Jones himself has urged that a full explanation be given and he apparently is not adverse to have his whole career and his performance in office opened to the light of day.

Yet the government has refrained from doing so.

In view of the situation which has developed during the past few months between Mr. Jones and the government, it is reasonable that the government would desire a change. Yet no member of the government has so indicated in the Legislature. If personal clashes have resulted, if the government honestly believes a change is necessary for the efficiency of the government department, then, surely, it should say so.

As the situation is now with members of the government sitting tight-lipped and saying nothing, the public is being forced into believing that either the government has no good reason for firing Jones, or that much, much more is involved than that which came to light in the court case.

Mr. Jones was found not guilty of the misdemeanor for which he is charged. Although the government has appealed the court's decision, Mr. Jones at this stage must be considered an innocent man. Yet the government wants to get rid of him.

We hold no brief for Mr. Jones, but we do think he is entitled to some explanation of the government's attitude. Even more so, the Legislature itself is entitled to an explanation before it takes any action on the "fire-Jones" bill.

And the public of British Columbia is likewise entitled to some explanation. This government has been accused of dictator-like attitudes before. Certainly this is one instance when such a description is merited. Its present stand suggests it is trying to impose its will on the Legislature by force rather than by reason.

Its present attitude only gives ammunition to its enemies, alienates its lukewarm supporters and embarrasses its friends.

We're Second Richest!

Canadians probably never noticed the difference, but during 1963 they won their tug-of-war with Sweden and became the second most prosperous people in the world.

Statistics compiled by the 21-nation Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development show that during 1963 the total national output for this country amounted to $2,263 per person in terms of U.S. currency. Sweden's per capita production was $2,045 which resulted in that country, previously in second place ahead of Canada, dropping into third place. The United States was far ahead of all other nations with $3,090, or 36 per cent above the Canadian production per person.

The other nations, in order, were: Switzerland, $2,010; Denmark, $1,700; France, $1,671; West Germany, $1,641; Luxembourg, $1,606 and Britain, $1,564. The statistics do not include Communist countries or most nations in the Far East or Middle East. The lowest 1963 level was for Turkey with a gross national product per capita of only $230. Spain's figures were not available, but in 1960 the figure for that country was $220.

The figures for Britain are reported to have improved slightly since 1963 but the comparatively low level of $1,564—or just about half that of the United States and 70 per cent of Canada's—stands as corroboration of the charges that much of Britain's industry, once the world's greatest, has fallen to a deplorable state of obsolescence and inefficiency. Dependent on imports for half her foodstuffs and all her petroleum, Britain's factories have not been producing enough for export to pay her way. The present financial crisis in the Old Country is the result.

While it is a source of satisfaction to be recognized as the world's second wealthiest people, the Canadian figures provide no reason for complacency. Exports of huge quantities of raw materials, minerals and forest products have tended to boost the Canadian figure without providing the amount of employment that a similar dollar volume of production in more sophisticated manufacturing industries would create. There is plenty of room for Canada to improve and, indeed, improve it must to provide gainful employment for record-breaking additions to the labor force in the near future.

Production is the key to national well-being but it is not, apparently, the answer to all problems. The Turkish people, with only one-thirteenth the per capita annual production of the United States, must find it difficult to believe there is a great need for President Johnson to launch an all-out war on poverty in that affluent land.

Yet such is the case. Once industry has produced the wealth, it is the problem of governments to devise a social system making the benefits available to all, in some measure. This is what President Johnson is now attempting to do in the moves toward his Great Society. It is a responsibility that all governments in industrially advanced countries eventually have to assume.

PARLIAMENT HILL SKI TOW

Retarded Child Project Set For Centennial Year

OTTAWA (CP)—The Canadian Association for Retarded Children and its provincial affiliates have unveiled a $7,000,000 research and service program on mental retardation which will be the association's national centennial project.

The project, already well past the preliminary planning stages, is called the Centennial Program in Mental Retardation. It will comprise at least 13 separate provincial projects.

The money to support the program is to be raised by the association through its provincial and local branches. Provincial governments and universities are also expected to contribute. All projects are scheduled to be well under way or completed by 1967.

The problem of mental retardation, once neglected by the public and medical researchers alike, is a massive one.

It is estimated that a retarded child is born in Canada every 25 minutes. Nearly 500,000 Canadians, or about three per cent of the population, suffer from mental retardation to some extent.

The emphasis of many of the research projects planned will be on "home strengthening"—preparing the parents of retarded children to live with and care for their children in their own homes.

This is in line with views expressed at a federal-provincial conference on mental retardation held here last October. Specialists agreed that a large percentage of the children now in institutions for the mentally ill and retarded need not be there at all.

As Dr. R. O. Jones of Halifax put it in his summary of the conference: "Home and community care would appear to be most desirable to the majority of retardates. Removal to the foster-homes or institutions should be only for specific purposes and preferably for a limited time."

Prince Edward Island plans to develop a model community service for the mentally retarded as its part of the national project. It is to be located in a rural area and will emphasize "home strengthening" of families with mentally retarded members, supported by the various social and medical services of the community.

New Brunswick will have a community project similar to the P.E.I. one, but its work is to be associated with a large treatment-training school.

All the Atlantic provinces are to participate in the development of the Atlantic Centennial Research Centre for Mental Retardation in Halifax. It may be located at the proposed new children's hospital associated with Dalhousie University and will provide full facilities for research and clinical investigation.

Quebec is to have an education research centre which will be concerned with the development of school curricula and teacher training.

Two projects are planned in Ontario. One, to be located in the Hamilton-Niagara Peninsula area, will feature a diagnostic-treatment centre and comprehensive special services serving four counties.

The second Ontario project, to be sponsored by the Toronto Association for Retarded Children, will be an adult services centennial centre. It will provide work-orientation facilities and staff training for vocational jobs.

Manitoba plans a model regional research centre for the handicapped, designed to show the feasibility of comprehensive regional service centres in thinly populated areas.

Saskatchewan hopes to establish a research-teaching consultant or professorship in mental retardation at the University of Saskatchewan. A second project will be a cooperative school-work program for educable retarded children within the provincial school system.

Three separate projects are planned in Alberta. One will deal with research on the learning concepts of pre-school mentally retarded children; another will try to show that retarded adults can be employed in the manufacturing industry and a third will provide research and service for the post-school-age retarded.

In British Columbia, the British Columbia Mental Retardation Institute is to house an educational observation unit and provide accommodation for children and parents who are under clinical investigation.

VICTORIA MERRY-GO-ROUND

Oppositionists Feel Snubbed

By JAMES E. NEBRITT

VICTORIA—Opposition members in the Legislature are crying aloud in deep frustration that the Premier's a dictator because, as Minister of Finance, he has found huge sums of money to distribute without any mention of them in the budget. This makes oppositionists feel snubbed.

Such financing, say the oppositionists, means the government is up to some kind of hanky-fanky, some kind of shady manipulation. The Premier naturally doesn't see it that way at all, and all his Social Credit backers, naturally, support him. Where they are concerned, the Premier can do no wrong, not that this kind of budgeting is wrong. It isn't. The Premier is quite within his constitutional rights to finance any way he sees fit.

Since he presented his 1965 budget some weeks ago, the Premier has announced $2,000,000 extra for meat-test old-age pensioners, and $5,000,000 more for the always hard-up municipalities. He may not have budgeted for these fat items, but he found the money—just like that, easy as easy.

The oppositionists say they're happy the poorest old folk and the municipalities will have more money, but they insist they don't like the way the Premier handled it; they say it looks mighty suspicious to them, and makes a mockery of the budget, and, in this, to a very great extent, they are right.

But—the budget is a loose document, and really doesn't mean too much. It's time-honored and traditional, and that's about all. It goes into much detail about expenditures and these expenditures, item by item, are discussed by members in what's called committee-of-the-whole-house-on-estimates. This gives honorable members chances to make speeches all over again, but they must remain with the specific subject under review, and not go rambling all round Mike O'Leary's barn like they do in Throne Speech and budget debates.

The fact MLAs pass a certain sum of such and such doesn't mean the government has to either spend that much or not spend it at all. The government can take all the voted money it wants and give it back into its treasury. This annoys the oppositionists, who year after year say they vote money which the government won't spend. Thus, according to the oppositionists, the government, and enables the government to save a nice fat nest egg, and then boast about it, instead of spending all the voted money on human needs.

It works, too, the other way round. Members spend hours, indeed weeks, debating and approving expenditures, every last cent, they think, and then the minute the House is prorogued, the government can spend any old sum it wants. Some years back, for instance, the government ordered a new $2,000,000 Government House. The Legislature was not asked for approval. This huge sum was not debated, it was just dug up by the government and spent, on the Premier's order.

The opposition—any opposition—would like to hogtie a government where expenditures are concerned, but a government takes good care to see it's never fenced-in in money matters. It must not be, for in an emergency, where would money come from immediately?

The budget, like so many other parts of our parliamentary system, has much to make-believe about it. Our system is filled with strange contradictions and top-heavy rules, but somehow we manage to muddle through.

Many Congressional Bills Affect Canadian Scene

WASHINGTON (CP)—Scores of bills affecting Canada directly or indirectly have been popped as usual into the United States congressional hopper.

The vast majority of them—many are repeats from previous Congresses—won't get far, anymore than do private bills and resolutions sponsored by private members of the Canadian House of Commons or Senate.

They range from measures to aid Canadian wildfowl hatcheries to curbs on Canadian bread, oil, base metals and other products.

There are bushels of measures on American wheat production, which has an indirect bearing on Canada as an export competitor. Most would increase federal aid.

Private bills and resolutions filed by the 435 members of the House of Representatives exceed 1,000. Some of these are duplicates. In the 100-seat Senate, more than 1,000 private measures have been filed.

Here are some examples: One would impose a higher tariff on live and dressed beef in quantities exceeding established quotas. Another would cause the country of origin to be stamped on all meat imports.

Duties on imports of Canadian bread are urged in another.

There are various bills affecting the St. Lawrence Seaway. One seeks a more conservative capitalization of the U.S. Seaway Authority, another a ban on seaway advertising which would hit competing U.S. ports, and another year-round navigation.

This last bill, which would establish a $10,000 two-year feasibility study, ignores the deep-seated resistance from Canadian maritime ports to any year-round seaway operation, even if it were technically possible at this time.

A 12-mile fishing limit similar to Canada's is sought. So is authority for the U.S. government to co-operate with Canada in reconstructing and improving the Alaska Highway which includes portions through British Columbia and the Yukon. This is an annual favorite of Democratic Senator Mike Mansfield of Montana.

Another would establish Pig Island National Historical Park in Washington state to commemorate 12 years of armed hostility between the U.S. and Britain. The only fatality was a British pig in 1919.

Other bills seek "stabilization" of the U.S. lead-zinc industry in effect protection against Canadian supplies which face quotas as it is.

One would earmark for Canada funds already approved by the U.S. for acquiring wetlands in which ducks and other waterfowl breed.

There are the usual bills and resolutions seeking more protection against foreign oil, a wall through which Canadian crude has been sliding easily in steadily rising quantities with the approval of U.S. governments.

A public hearing into the oil exports program begins March 15.

There is also a proposal to establish a national oceanographic council which aside from ocean work, would involve Great Lakes waters.

More important than most and with more chance of getting somewhere is perennial legislation to build with Canada the Trans-Alberta Pipeline power project in Bay of Fundy waters off the New Brunswick-Maine shore.

New, Tiny, Manual Computer May Beat Gambling Odds

By JAMES E. NEBRITT

ALAMOGORDO, N.M. (AP)—

A tiny, manually operated computer, small enough to be held in the palm of a hand, is being offered as the latest method of beating the gambling odds.

But even its promoters admit the computer's advantages at the blackjack and tables, while solid, are not likely to bankrupt Nevada where blackjack is a $70,000,000-a-year business with more than 3,000,000 players.

"The great majority will continue to play blackjack without using the strategy and the computer will continue to make money in spite of consistent winnings by users of the computer," says a sales pamphlet.

The computer is being manufactured as the brain-child of a college mathematician and a government physicist.

It is based on a gambling system developed by Edward O. Thorp, first with a mathematician, then at New Mexico State University, and described in his book, Beat The Dealer.

CHANGE RULES

Thorp's system was proved so successful by its practitioners that Las Vegas casinos changed some of their rules for playing blackjack so the house could regain its mathematical advantage.

Charles Vorhies, executive secretary of the United States Association in Nevada, said Thorp was first with a system to upset the "traditional percentage" in the game, which normally favors the house, 52.5 to 47.5 per cent.

H. T. Benn, physicist at nearby Holloman Air Force Base, had been toying with the idea of a computer to help card players figure betting odds when Thorp's system attracted national attention last spring.

Benn and Thorp collaborated on a hand-held device two inches square and three-eighths of an inch thick to help the card player inconspicuously put Thorp's card-counting system into operation at the table.

The strategy involves keeping track of the cards as they are exposed in the course of play—dividing them into 10s or higher and non-10s. As the ratio of high cards to non-highs decreases, the player's advantage rises under his system.

The player makes larger bets when the advantage is in his favor and comparatively small bets when the casino has the advantage.

Major problem in using the system is remembering the numbers of cards played and computing the changing ratios. This is where the computer comes in.

It subtracts 10s and non-10s as cards are revealed and calculates the ratio of cards remaining in the deck. It can be overruled, if necessary, so the player does not have to look at it.

Red And White Color Theme For Pretty Evening Wedding

The Christian and Missionary Alliance Church in Kelowna was decorated with red and white streamers for the early evening double-ring ceremony, in which Sharon May, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Shannon of Lakeview Heights, and Dearest Timothy Harder, the son of the Rev. and Mrs. John H. Harder of Kelowna, were united in marriage.

Rev. John Harder officiated at his son's wedding and the bride was the bride's aunt, Mrs. Don Ritchey, who was accompanied at the organ by the groom's sister, Miss Caroline Harder, and her husband, Mr. Don Ritchey.

The wedding procession was preceded on the aisle by two candlelighters, Miss Pearl Harder and Miss Maria Goertzen, who lit the candles in golden candelabras at the foot of the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father and mother, wore a lovely portrait gown of champagne. The fitted bodice was embroidered with a beaded pattern of pearls and diamonds, and the long sleeves were of the same material. The back of the very full skirt was set with ruffles.

A rosette held her bouffant veil and she carried a cascading bouquet of tiny red roses and lilies-of-the-valley. For something borrowed, something blue, she wore her grandmother's gold watch and a blue garter.

The bride was attended by her maid-of-honor, Miss Felicia Duckett, a cousin, and bridesmaids Miss Lois Morrison of Kelowna and Miss Marilyn McKelvey of Rutland. Her flower girl was her younger sister, Miss Charlene Shannon, and Master Ricky Esslinger was the ring-bearer.

The candlelighters wore white velvet, street length dresses with three quarter length sleeves and the bridesmaids wore full-length red velvet dresses with belted skirts and shoes to match. Their bridesmaids were of matching rosettes on red veils and they carried white carnations. The little flower girl was charming dressed as a miniature bride and carried a miniature rose basket bouquet.

The bridegroom was attended by David Fraser and Ralph Elley, the best man was Allan Fraser and ushers Don Burnett and John Harder.

At the reception and supper for 200 guests held in the Yeehan room, Mrs. Shannon received, in a dress of pale blue wool lace with a matching jacket faced with pale blue silk. She wore a hat of pale blue organza petals, white gloves and carried a pearl evening purse. She was assisted by the groom's mother wearing a beige two-piece suit, a small velvet hat and black accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of pink carnations.

Master of ceremonies for the evening was Pastor Schroeder of Kelowna. Two telegrams of congratulations were read from the bride's uncles and aunts. Mr. and Mrs. Roland Ritchey and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ritchey, of Kelowna, and from the groom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harder, of Calgary. A toast to the bride was proposed by the bride's uncle, Don Ritchey.

The bride's table was lit with candles in crystal candelabras and decorated with the bride's and bridesmaids' bouquets. The wedding cake, on a separate table, was made and most intricately decorated by Mrs. Shannon. Consisting of three tiers, each one of a different color, it was decorated with white and pink flowers and the top tiers on each side were joined by an archway surmounted by a miniature bride and groom. During the evening, Mrs. Ritchey and the "Star-gazers" played for the guests, and Miss Caroline Harder played the organ.

Before leaving for a honeymoon in the States, the bride changed into a tan and white dress with a fur pocket and a small black feathered hat. To complement her outfit she wore black accessories. From their return the young couple will reside in Kelowna.

Most of the guests attending the wedding were from Kelowna, Rutland and other Valley points. Other out-of-town guests included: Mrs. Lewis Goertzen and her daughters, Maria and Gail, from Smith Lake, B.C.; Mrs. Percy Trudgen, an aunt of the bride from Red Deer, Alberta; Ed Giesbrecht and Miss Annette Redekopp from Vancouver, and Mrs. John G. Hunter, great aunt and aunt of the bride from Peachland, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Galbraith and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hendricks both from Penitence, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Waggoner of Winfield, Mrs. John Ritchey, from Merritt; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ritchey of Okanagan, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haynes of Williams Lake; Mrs. Dick Paul, Salmon Arm; Mr. and Mrs. Stan Anton of Malakwa; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Heising, the bride's great uncle and aunt; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Heising, Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith, all from Winfield; Mrs. Ivo Offenberg of Penitence and the bride's uncle, Mrs. Gordon Shannon, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sanderson, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Davies from Peachland.

Curves To Fore In Paris Fashions

PARIS (Reuters)—The look for spring and summer on the Paris fashion scene is soft and extremely feminine with a curve replacing an angle every time.

The essence of the new look is its soft fluidity. Everything harsh and severe is out, including the architectural technique of tailoring.

Shoulders are rounded. Booms and waistline are fitted. Skirts have a little swirl and flare. Long legs sheathed in pale, off-white stockings play up short hemlines, established at knee-cap length in most houses.

Couragees, Hem, Feraud and Esterel show even shorter skirts, cut well above the knees.

These new, full skirts have bias cut, flying panels, godets or gathered. Some are shown like morning glory flowers with smooth neckline and low-set circular flares.

Others have overlapping panels suggesting the petals of a tulip.

The ruffled and frothy hemline is a leading trend in short late-day dresses made of lace or sheer fabrics.

The collection at Christian Dior depicts the dainty skirt which designer Marc Bohan originated last season. He ignores the bias cut and, using fabric cut on the straight, mounts skirts in gathers around the natural waistline.

Most silhouettes have a well-defined waistline, with skirts mounted on self-fabric belts. Both Molyneux and Dior add a narrow leather belt for good measure.

The softly tailored shirtwaist dresses, reminiscent of the 1930s and inspired by Molyneux's comeback, returns in many collections.

It appears for day wear with long sleeves marked with French cuffs, a box pleated skirt and neatly belted waistline. It is all there after dark with a sunburst or acorn pleated skirt of vaporous mousseline.

Necklines are predominantly high and restrained. Skirts have small rolled collars cut wide to reveal a contrasting toned collarless blouse.

Saskatchewan's Woman Member Has Political Background

REGINA (CP)—Sally Merchant became the only Liberal woman member of Saskatchewan's new legislature after she was elected to politics by her 18-year-old son.

In the provincial general election last April, Mrs. Merchant became the first Liberal elected in the city of Saskatoon, provincially or federally, in more than 20 years as Premier Ross Thatcher's party ousted the CCF government after it had held office for two decades.

"My immediate reason for running was that I was 18-year-old son Tony. The night before the nominating convention, after I had been asked to run and had refused, he more or less told me to put up or shut up. I had no right to complain about the government unless I was willing to do something myself."

But regardless of having to be prodded into politics, she has a firm political philosophy. "I have always felt that government shouldn't govern too much, that there are certain areas of individual, family and municipal rights which should not be invaded and which were being invaded by the CCF government," she said in an interview.

POLITICAL HERITAGE While Mrs. Merchant, 45, prior to her election had no experience in active politics, she has a political family background.

Her father, the late Judge grandfather, uncle and his late father.

"I think Tony felt there was nothing else to be," Mrs. Merchant said. "We lived with my parents when I came back west in 1944 and he grew up with talk of politics and law. He used to ask what other people talked about."

V. R. Smith, was a Liberal MLA for Yorkton for one term in 1934 while at the same time her uncle was a Conservative member of Parliament for a Nova Scotia riding. Her grandfather campaigned in Nova Scotia for Sir Charles Tupper, one of the Fathers of Confederation.

Mrs. Merchant's brother, Adrian, is associated with the Alberta Liberal organization in Edmonton and a sister-in-law holds office in the Ontario Liberal Women's Association.

Her daughter, also named Adrian, is married to Otto Lang, dean of law at the University of Saskatchewan and a former Liberal campaign manager. Tony, a former president of the Saskatchewan Young Liberal Association, is taking first-year law at the University of Saskatchewan, following in the footsteps of his maternal father.

Ald. Eric Palmer said it was up to the Vernon Bus Lines. "If they want to go ahead with increased fares, but it's unfortunate for people caught in a bind, who can't afford the increase. The city is in a bind too," he said.

Lakeview Heights Selects New Recreation Officers

LAKEVIEW HEIGHTS — Al Luknowsky was named chairman and Fred Kern vice-chairman at the Lakeview Heights Recreation Commission February meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Reed on Hudson Drive, recently.

Lyman Dooley retains her position as secretary, and Mrs. Hugh McCartney, treasurer, for another two years.

Eric Brown, retiring chairman, presided over the meeting and welcomed new commission members, Mr. Luknowsky, Mr. Kern, Mrs. W. Abel and Peter Pearson.

The problem of raising money in order to be able to carry on with next summer's Red Cross swimming classes was discussed. The meeting decided to have a St. Patrick's dance on Friday, March 15 in the Institute hall. A cold turkey supper was planned and Mrs. Mary Kerchhoff will supply music for dancing.

LETTER
Mr. Pearson requested a letter be sent to P. A. Gagliardi, minister of highways, in order to try and clarify the position with regard to Kalmor Park Beach, adjoining the V.L.A. Although this is classified as a Class "C" park, the actual beach is designated on provincial maps as a highway. Mr. Pearson felt that although the Parks Board has tried for several years to clear up this peculiar situation, it might be a good idea for the commission to approach Mr. Gagliardi.

He said this should be done before any further improvements are made to the beach and also to ensure that it is not leased or purchased by private individuals. Both the parks board and the commission, which sponsors the Red Cross swimming classes for the children, have improved the beach over the past few years.

PEACHLAND COUNCIL NOTES
Parks and Recreation Chairman Lloyd Bowden suggested cement curbing to border the lawn across from the store and Municipal hall and underook to ascertain prices on same. Reeve Charles Whinton suggested the curbing should be taken down as far as the swim bay or even further, to prevent cars getting stuck in the gravel.

Notice had been received that the 1965 Home Owners Grant will be $100.

A plan to subdivide 34 of an acre from Block 49 D.L. 1143 Map 117 was approved in principle and handed to the Planning Board for their opinion.

O.K. Regional Library report and assessment was read. The share to be contributed by Peachland would be $1,104.78 for 1968. The report informed council that for 1964 the Peachland branch had a total of 263 borrowers registered, and that 2,697 books had been taken out. The report was discussed at some length and concern expressed at the rising cost of library service. It was pointed out that using the 1964 figures against the 1965 assessment, this represented 40.96 cents for every book borrowed or $4.20 per registered reader. In view of the fact that accommodation for the library in the new building under construction would be rent-free basis, it was felt that the cost of equipping the new quarters should be borne by the library board.

Garbage collection in outlying areas will take place March 10.

Councillor Frank Sadeboham was authorized to proceed with the installation of washroom facilities in the temporary municipal office.

Speed limit signs have been received and will now be erected.

Opening lead — ace of diamonds.

You don't look a gift horse in the mouth, even when it comes to you at the table on a silver platter. You take it, say thank you to the opponents, and go on to the next deal, having taken fullest advantage of the gift.

Boris Schapiro, British star, was declared at four apades in this hand from a match between France and Great Britain. Four apades could have been defeated in several different ways, but the defense had no sure guide line to follow and chose the one course that gave Schapiro a chance to make the contract.

West began with the ace of diamonds and, when East signaled with the nine, continued with a diamond. East covered the ten with the jack and Schapiro ruffed. The defense had no way of knowing it at this point, but they had already choked the contract.

Schapiro drew two rounds of trumps, ending in his hand, and then led a low heart. West had to play the queen to protect his heart trick, and dummy took it with the ace.

Schapiro next led the queen of diamonds, covered by the king, but, instead of ruffing it, he discarded a club. As a result of this play, he succeeded in making the contract. East had to lead a club away from the king, or else yield a ruff and discard.

Of course, if West had had the king of clubs, this method of play would have failed. In that case, the simpler method of leading a low club toward the queen would have done the job.

But Schapiro knew from the bidding that East had the king of clubs. West would not have opened with a preemptive bid, holding seven good hearts, the ace of diamonds, and the king of clubs as well. With such a hand he would certainly have opened one heart.

The endplay clearly offered the better chance.

YOUR HOROSCOPE

FOR TOMORROW

A.M. hours will be best for routine, but the afternoon may turn out to be surprisingly "different" in that you may have some unexpectedly pleasant dealings with executives, others in authority or even with a person whom you greatly admire. A new opportunity may be presented but, even though it makes you happy, study it carefully.

FOR THE BIRTHDAY

If tomorrow is your birthday, your horoscope should look for auspicious wedding dates in late June, any time in July and in late September. Best period for travel: the first three weeks in July.

A child born on this day will be extremely practical, conservative and domestically inclined.

fairly immediate rewards, but will be reflected in further job advances during December and January. Creative workers will find the entire year unusually generous from planetary standpoint, with notable accomplishment indicated in June.

With the exception of brief periods every other month, when some stress may be present, personal relationships—especially those of a domestic or sentimental nature—will be under fine aspects. The marriage-minded can look for auspicious wedding dates in late June, any time in July and in late September. Best period for travel: the first three weeks in July.

Call only a properly qualified, skilled craftsman. Pick your tile from the largest selection available. Free estimates. Low winter rates still in effect.

STOCK CARS SCRAMBLE AVOIDING FIRE

Russians Take Pairs Title; Burka Leads Women's Singles

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (CP-AP) — A Russian husband and wife won the pairs title and 18-year-old Petra Burka of Toronto took the lead in the quest for the women's singles championship at the world figure skating championships Wednesday.

Men's single competition began today with Alain Calmat, a young Frenchman who has been trying for 10 years, rated the skater to beat.

The first championship to be decided was won by Russia's Oleg Protopopov and his wife, Ljudmila Belousova, who gave an artistic and flawless performance of leaps and lifts Wednesday night in the pairs.

This is the first time any Russian entry has won a world figure skating title.

FAVORED TO WIN

Miss Burka, a Dutch-born Canadian, held the lead in women's competition after completion of the six compulsory figures. This puts her in the favorite's role to win the title, because she is regarded as the best free skater in amateur competition.

The women's championship will be decided tonight when the free-skating tests are held. If she wins the crown, Miss Burka will be the first Canadian woman to do so since Barbara Ann Scott of Ottawa reigned supreme. Barbara Ann won the world title in 1947 and the world and Olympic championships in 1948.

Sjoukje Dijkstra of The Netherlands is not defending this year, having turned professional after winning the world crown for three straight years.

The red-costumed Miss Burka, who won the North American championship last week, scored 15.0 ordinal points and 1,256.4 total points.

DROPS TO SECOND

Christine Haigler, 17-year-old Colorado Springs high school girl, who led after four figures, dropped to second with 16.5 ordinal and 1,255.4 total points.

Hegine Heister, 21-year-old European champion from Austria, was third, with 16-year-old Peggy Fleming of Pasadena, Calif., fourth and Japan's Niwa Fukuhara fifth.

Valerie Jones of Toronto, a blonde 15-year-old making her first start in international competition, was in sixth place with 63.0 ordinal and 1,118.2 points.

Gloria Ann Tatton, also of Toronto, was 12th with 103.5 ordinal and 1,042.0 points.

Portland Blanks Seattle 'Cousins'

PORTLAND (AP) — Portland scored its fifth straight Western Hockey League victory over Seattle Wednesday, trimming the Totems 5-0 to move four points atop the league.

It was goalie Don Head's third shutout of the season, all against Seattle.

Portland scored only one goal in the first two periods.

At the end of the second period Seattle goalie Jim McLeod was hit on the head by a shot from Connie Mndigan. It took three stitches to close the wound.

Crozier Slams Door On Hawks As Detroit Moves Up Notch

Chicago Black Hawks have tail-spinned into a late-season slump while Detroit Red Wings are looking like a big threat for first-place National Hockey League honors.

Detroit blanked the Hawks 2-0 in Chicago Wednesday night to pull into a second-place tie with Montreal Canadiens only three points behind the Hawks. Wings and Montreal have three games in hand over Chicago.

In a game which meant nothing to the playoffs, Boston Bruins slammed New York Rangers 6-1 in New York as Bruins players probably hoped to catch the eye of their owners with a view to employment next season.

Goalie Roger Crozier had to work hard for his sixth shutout of the season, best in the league, as Detroit downed Chicago on Black Hawk ice for the first time in regular league play since March 1, 1963. Chicago has not won in its last three games.

His most outstanding save was on a close-in shot by Bobby Hull in the third period. The brilliant Chicago player was unable to add to his 38 goals where

Leafs Clip Jets In Playoff Brawl

NELSON (CP) — Nelson Maple Leafs edged Spokane Jets 6-4 here Wednesday night in a fight-filled Western International Hockey League semi-final.

It was the first game of a best-of-five series.

Referees Carl Johnson and Bill Waddell assessed one game misconduct, four 10-minute misconducts and six major penalties during the game.

Danny Calles, Buck Crawford, Bobby Kromm, Doug Kilburn, Howie Hornby and Murray Owens scored for Nelson. Joe Morneau replied with two for Spokane and Brian Cruikshank and Tom Hodges added one each.

Spokane forward Charlie Goodwin was thrown out of the game when he leaped from the players' bench to join in an altercation involving six players in the third period.

The brawl ended with four Nelson and two Spokane players in the penalty box.

"Sold Out" Sign Hung Up At World Hockey Meet

TAMPERE, Finland (CP) — The "sold out" sign was up as the 1965 world hockey championships, the first ever staged in Finland, opened today with Russia, Sweden and Czechoslovakia, the three top-rated countries, seeing action in the new indoor stadium here.

Quebec's Day Of Reckoning Arrives At Saskatoon Brier

SASKATOON (CP) — This is the day of reckoning for Quebec when Bill Tracy of Bagotville leads his rink against first-place Manitoba in the seventh round of the Canadian curling championship.

Quebec, which has never won the championship and is currently tied for second place with a 5-1 win-loss record, and Terry Braunstein's Manitoba foursome from Winnipeg with a 5-0 record meet in the day's opening round.

Tied with Quebec after Wednesday's fifth and sixth rounds in the 11-rink, round-robin bonspiel was Harold Worth of Delta, Sask.

Northern Ontario, skipped by Jack Polyblank of Kirkland Lake, was fourth at 4-1, while Alberta's Nick Lashuk of Calgary had four wins and two losses.

Rinks skipped by Doug Cameron of Charlottetown and Ray Grant of Uxville, Ont., had 2-3 records.

New Brunswick's Dr. Peter Lyons of Moncton and British Columbia skip Jack Arnet of Vancouver were tied with one win and four losses, while George MacCharles of St. John's, Nfld., had one win and five defeats. Ron Franklin of Halifax was the only skip without a victory after five games. Saskatchewan meets B.C. P.E.I. plays Northern Ontario.

New Brunswick goes against Alberta, and Ontario plays Nova Scotia in other seventh-round matches.

But the Manitoba-Quebec contest could be the key match for both rinks. Tracy, if he can survive, draws the bye in today's second set of matches, and would be rested for his ninth-round match against Alberta tonight.

Kelowna's Brier Bid Failure Doesn't Trigger Expected Blast

SASKATOON (CP) — Expected fireworks on allocation of Canadian curling championships venues failed to materialize Wednesday at the annual Dominion Curling Association.

The meeting was held during the 1965 Canadian curling championship.

Expected to fire the gun was R. J. Topping of Oliver, B.C., president of the DCA.

Marked by the failure of Kelowna's five-year pitch to land the national event and the decision to play the next two at Halifax and Ottawa, Topping had promised to bring the matter up at the annual meeting.

Topping's shot was limited to seconding a recommendation by Norris Wood of Calgary that the DCA negotiate a firm contract with the sponsors which might include: A five-year guarantee of sponsorship with an option of renewal; a one-year notice for renewal of option; the DCA handling all details in naming sites and preparation of a budget by the DCA which would cause the sponsor to absorb some of the expenses of running provincial playoffs.

Only comment by Topping was a charge that the DCA "hasn't been living up to its constitution."

He referred to a clause in the constitution which says the DCA shall select the site for the national single-rink championships.

Topping was made an honorary life member of the DCA.

Curling Body Elects New Officers; Reject Move To Drop Seniors Edge

SASKATOON (CP) — Frank Sargent, 62-year-old funeral director from Port Arthur with 50 years of curling experience Wednesday, was named president of the Dominion Curling Association. He succeeds F. A. Skinner of Edmonton.

The association created the position of fourth vice-president and named lawyer Alfred J. Parkhill of Ottawa, Ont., to the executive. He joins Gordon L. Bennett of Charlottetown, W. E. Lumden of Winnipeg and H. P. Carter of St. John's, Nfld., as vice-presidents.

A. W. Parish of Hamilton and C. H. Scrymgeour of Winnipeg were returned as treasurer and secretary.

Only issue of debate was centered around the age limit of the national seniors curling championship. The first event is scheduled to take place at the Lakehead in three weeks.

A motion to reduce the minimum age to 50 from 55 was defeated 29 to 16.

Elected were: L. E. Olson, Calgary; W. J. MacKay, Montreal; J. D. Alexander, Campbellton, N.B.; W. D. Yates, Corner Brook, Nfld.; Douglas Skinner, Marathon, Ont.; Gordon Orr, Grande Prairie, Alta.; Dr. E. S. Giddings, Charlottetown; Marc St. Hilaire, Sillery, Que.; Allan Downie, Kapuskasing, Ont.; Walter Hobbs, Kelowna, B.C.; W. D. Murray, Calgary; Gordon Law, Winnipeg; L. H. Hume, North Bay, Ont.; H. P. Webb, Halifax; Bruce Cummings, Vancouver; J. E. Backlund, Bourlambaque, Que.; G. A. McVittie, Yellowknife, N.W.T.; H. E. Boyd, Whitehorse, Y.T.; Ivy Richardson, Regina.

Dynamiters Blast Into 2-Game Lead

KIMBERLEY (CP) — Kimberley Dynamiters easily whipped Trail Smoke Eaters 6-2 here Wednesday night to take a 2-0 lead in their best-of-five Western International Hockey League semi-final.

Third, and possibly last, game in the series will be played at Trail Friday night.

Ken McTeer set the tone of the game by blasting in an unassisted goal after only 55 seconds of play to put Kimberley ahead 1-0.

The Dynamiters never let up. Dick Vincent and Walter Souter scored two each and Vern Wildeman added the other.

Cal Hockey and Mel Unger scored the Trail goals.

Chinooks Move Into Hoop Final

HAMILTON, Ont. (CP) — Victoria Chinooks advanced to the Canadian Junior basketball championship finals Wednesday night with a 60-37 win over Montreal Orchiids.

Victoria has won three consecutive games in the week-long competition and awaits the outcome of a semi-final game between Montreal and Calgary Cougars today. The winner plays Victoria Friday.
